

Speaker 1:

The way others drive may be out of your hands. But, the way you manage your car insurance isn't thanks to handy apps like this one from TD Insurance.

With the TD Insurance app you can manage your payments and billing details, add a vehicle, or update your vehicle usage. Download your pink card, start a claim and view your policies on the fly to save all sorts of time. And what's more, the high tech stuff lets you log in safely and securely using one of your invaluable versatile opposable digits.

Thankfully, we have eight years until she can drive a real car.
